

Choreography Master Class

at

Dundee Ice Arena

with international guest coach

Gary Beacom

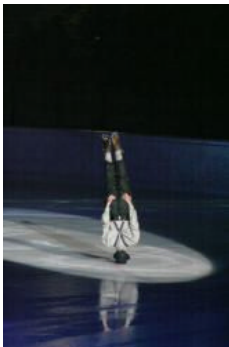

and

Lorna Brown

on

Friday 4th June

Saturday 5th June 2010

Gary Beacom is a Canadian figure skater, choreographer and author. He is the 1983 and 1984 Canadian silver medalist and finished 11th at the 1984 Winter Olympics. In his professional career he developed into an interesting skater specializing in unusual moves, such as those in his famous performance to Leonard Cohen's I'm Your Man. He is also the 1988 World Professional Champion.

Lorna Brown is a British and World Professional ice skating champion and a world and Olympic figure skating coach and choreographer. She is also a former member of John Curry's "Theatre of Skating" and "Ice Dancing".